Dear All,

Many thanks to lots of locals who wished me well for my recent birthday. Having enjoyed somewhere warmer for a couple of weeks, I'm back to enjoy a particularly beautiful and abundant British autumn. The trees are so laden with apples and pears that we can't use them all and there is a great nut harvest in the offing too, see Claire's explanation of a 'mast year' on page 10.

There are only a few events in November, but those few will pack a punch. Remembrance Services are on the 9th and the Remembrance Ceremony at the Crown will be on the 11th. The Farmers' Market on 16th should be as good as ever, see page 11 for more details and to order bread and local apple juice. The Christmas Party in the Hall is right at the end of the month, in time to get us into the party spirit—with just one table left, see page 3.

The Crown Inn's tenants are really getting into the swing of things, and the pub is getting busy again, which is so nice to see and I am bumping into people I haven't seen for a while because of it—how wonderful.

They have lots of regular and one off events popping up, starting with a Halloween Party on 31st October—do see their adverts on pages 8 and 9 to add extra dates to your diary.

The NPSG are finishing off their work on the latest version of the plan and will have more to report next month.

Things are changing at the Village Hall with a few new faces taking on some of the load, allowing some others to take a step back. I will add my thanks to those of others for the very hard work put in by Marilyn and Geoff for many years, and the great efforts put in by Jo. Thank you all.

We will be publishing your Christmas Messages next month see page 6 for more details.

Please make sure you look through the businesses which advertise with us when looking for suppliers or assistance, some of them offer discounts for locals, and local people may be able to give you references for many of them.

Did you get to any of the events last month?

Did you go to a successful event? Do you have praise for the organisers? Send me a few words about it. Is there something going on that I haven't heard about, send me some info and I'll let everyone know. Got something to say on any local subject, send it to me, your articles are always welcome.

Liz

Remembrance Ceremony on Tuesday
11th November

To commemorate the lives of those who have fallen in wars, a short Remembrance Ceremony will be held on Tuesday 11th November 2025 by the flagpole outside The Crown pub in Broad Hinton. Do attend if you can. It will take approximately 20 minutes. Please be settled by 10:45 AM. Erin and Ion (Landlady and Landlord) have kindly agreed to provide refreshments immediately thereafter.

NOVEMBER NEWS

Changes to Trustees

We're fortunate Nick Moakes has joined us recently as a trustee. Nick brings vast business experience and a wealth of local knowledge. He has previously been a BHVH trustee and was instrumental in the process of replacing the 1963 BHVH with this one.

Jo Smith has resigned as Joint-Chair. Jo has been a vital trustee of BHVH since she joined in 2021 and worked as Joint-Chair with Kate Marshall. Jo has made tremendous contributions to the development of the way BHVH is run. She played a key part in moving our hirings onto the digital platform Lemon Bookings and she has since single-handedly carried out the admin required. She has also worked on strengthening our processes and Terms & Conditions, particularly for hirers who don't live in our community. Her contribution will be greatly missed, thank you Jo.

What Happens Next?

Jo's resignation has meant changes to trustees and their roles. Read about them and how you too can help keep BHVH at the Heart of the Community, elsewhere in the Local News.

See what's been going on in BHVH and is still to come

On the website <https://broadhinton.org.uk/news-events/> and elsewhere in Local News.

Volunteer Social & Presents for Marilyn & Geoff Martin

Sue Robinson hosted our social event for the volunteers who help us keep BHVH looking beautiful. You will have already read here, several months ago, our profuse thanks to Marilyn & Geoff Martin for their dedication to BHVH. During the afternoon, Nick Moakes made a short speech, again thanking Marilyn & Geoff and we presented them with presents to mark the occasion.

November Hirings

This is so everyone knows when the car park is required and when residents can expect people going in and out of BHVH. These times include set up time, not necessarily the time of the events.

£20 230 Sarah Kromer

£20 274 Sue Robinson

£10 29 Keith Saile

Changes to BHVH trustees roles

- Nick Moakes will become Chair
- Mark Miller will work as Vice-Chair with Nick
- Sue Robinson will be responsible for hiring admin, relinquishing her role as Secretary, which she has tirelessly carried out for many years.
- Kate Marshall will become Secretary
- Kate Nye will remain Treasurer
- Sarah Kromer will continue as Charity Commission contact
- Adam Gilmore remains our Parish Council contact

We'll continue to keep BHVH at the Heart of the Community.

How can you help with that?

Kate Nye benefits from a couple of paid days from her employer to do voluntary work. She's going to use one of them to update and improve our policies and procedures.

Damian Le Gresley's employer agreed to reduced hours so he can use some of the time for voluntary work. He manages BHVH's maintenance requirements and the tradespeople and volunteer team who do it.

Does your employer give you volunteer days?

Why not use one or more to help BHVH?

We also welcome anyone interested in becoming a trustee.

Please contact us on villagehall@broadhinton.org.uk or chat to

Nick Moakes (07918 630 712) or

Mark Miller (07830 395 605).

What's been happening in BHVH and what's to come?

Vintage Valuation Day was on Wednesday 22nd October

Did you go and see the T. Keeble Cash Road Show? They hired the hall for an Antiques Roadshow type event, where you could have your items valued.

Black-Tie Christmas Party Saturday 29th November

£60, we only have one table left. Canapés first, then two sit- down courses, with a great DJ for dancing. Book your ticket with Sarah Kromer on finance@broadhinton.org.uk or 07885 519221.

Christmas Market Sunday 7th December

Delicious food and drink available, together with lots of Christmas shopping opportunities. If you'd like to book a table to sell, contact Sue Robinson on 07841 162367.

Panto Rehearsals

Are in full swing, ready to perform Robbin' Hoody at the end of January.

Strings Incognito

Are a concert orchestra who recently used BHVH for rehearsals and we'd love them to come and perform here too. They're not sure if we have the space for them for a full performance, but we'll see.

Church Building Trust

I just wanted to share some updates from the Broad Hinton Church Trust. After 35 years as Treasurer, Robert Horton has resigned his position and I have now accepted that position. On behalf of the Trustees and of course on behalf of all those who have benefitted from Robert's work, I'd like to thank him for all he has done for the Trust. Also, a special mention to Rebecca Hill who has supported him during this time. Their work is much appreciated by all of us. Robert has also resigned as a Trustee so we would welcome volunteers willing to help us in maintaining and sustaining the Church building. Please feel free to contact me (Chris Wilson on 07745 162069 or chris_wilson99@icloud.com) for more information.

Unfortunately, the Choir Concert which we had been planning for November to raise much needed funds for the Church Building, has had to be postponed. I know several people had shown interest and we were looking forward to hosting it. We hope to organise something in the New Year. In the meantime, we are still looking to raise funds for the fabric of the Church to ensure it is preserved for generations to come, and I will provide more details on our plans in the coming months.

Many thanks for your continued support.

THE RIDGEWAY LADIES

On Wednesday 1st October the ladies met at the Conservative Club in Royal Wootton Bassett for their annual skittles evening.

Jenny organised the evening whilst Elaine had the unenviable task of keeping the scores! The range of abilities was enormous – with some ladies knocking down all the skittles to some managing not to knock any over (quite an achievement!) Midway through the match a buffet supper was served...a selection of sandwiches, quiches, chips and snacks. The match was then resumed.

Prizes were handed out at the end of the match. Enid was the winner and Pam won a prize for being the lowest scorer. Jenny had the top score for a single round - unfortunately there was no prize for this (but she did win a raffle prize!)

An enjoyable evening was had by all.....

Our next meeting is on Wednesday 5th November at 7.30pm in the village hall. Sara Gray will be coming to give a talk about the history of pantomime entitled 'It's Behind You'. All ladies welcome.

Christmas messages

for publication in the

December issue of Local News

We will be publishing your Christmas messages as usual in next month's Local News. If you would like to write a message to your friends and neighbours, please send your message to 3villageslocalnews@gmail.com by 18th November if possible please. Your message will cost £7 with the donation being split 50/50 between Wiltshire Air Ambulance, and the Church. Should you also wish to make a donation towards the cost of the Local News too we would be very grateful. For payment please send money to Steve Cutler as below: Bank transfer (email for details) Paypal – downsreach@btinternet.com Cash – envelope through door – 23 Fortunes Field – or in person at Coffee Morning on Tuesday in Village Hall. Please write full name on envelope and either include message or email separately.

PCC parish column - Wiltshire shortchanged by national police funding formula

As your Police and Crime Commissioner, I remain deeply concerned that the existing national police funding formula, established by Tony Blair's government is seriously disadvantaging Wiltshire Police and limiting the service that we can provide our communities. The government's central grant allocates us approximately £115 per head of population while the national average is £164.

The current police formula does not recognise the reality of policing a largely rural county, across a wide area, with diverse challenges: rural crime, county lines, cyber crime, serious violence, mental health, victim support, and more. Without stable, fair and long-term commitments to funding, we are pushed into short-term fixes that slow innovation and jeopardise technology investment.

I have written to the previous and current police ministers and home secretaries asking them to address the disparities in police funding. Both the previous government and this one may appear annually to allocate the police more money, but in fact they do not cover inflationary pressures and increasingly expect PCCs to increase local taxes to compensate for this reduction in central funding - placing the burden on residents.

Over the last year Wiltshire Police has squeezed out just about every possible cost efficiency through their Financial Review Programme — cutting estate and fleet costs, departmental staffing reviews and tightening procurement. But there is only so much that can be trimmed before it begins harming the core service.

We also face a workforce challenge: bringing in new officers is important, but retaining experience, investing in training, and giving officers the tools they need is critical.

I applaud the progress Wiltshire Police has made under Chief Constable Catherine Roper — being removed from 'special measures' and achieving service improvements locally. Residents are telling me that they feel safer, yet none of that is guaranteed unless our funding is fair and sustainable.

This is not about balance sheets — it is about service. An outdated and unfair funding formula means slower responses, fewer officers visible in our communities, overworked teams, and delayed investigations. Wiltshire residents deserve policing that delivers and keeps them safe and that is what I am fighting for.

I will continue to campaign for multi-year settlements and reform of the funding formula to reflect the true demands of modern policing. I'm committed to ensuring that Wiltshire has the resources it needs to be safe and well served.

November Farmers' Market

The next Farmers' Market at Broad Hinton Village Hall is 11am – 1pm on Sunday 16th November. We are fortunate to have a great line-up of local traders and high-quality produce once again.

Pete's MicroBakery are back with real bread, using just three ingredients, flour, salt and water, no additives whatsoever sneaked in. You can pre-order to collect at the market. Browse at: www.petesmicrobakery.co.uk then contact Adam Gilmore adam.gilmore@outlook.com or 07969 290124 to order.

Grove Farm butchery will have their Savernake Forest grazed beef, local pork, lamb and venison among other things.

The Gourmet Goat Farmer will be here again with a great goaty selection – including cheeses, and the meat of their Marlborough Downs grazing Boer goats.

Artisan chocolate from Amy Levin, traditional sweets from Sugar Garden Boutique, Glamorose sweet treats, Bolts Deli pet products, and RWB Refill Station for your eco-friendly toiletries & homecare, will all be with us. And we are delighted to welcome David & Pat Salter from Winterbourne Bassett with their famous pickles, preserves and cakes.

We now have limited stock of your Village Apple Juice... Reserve juice for collection or delivery at: <https://www.bhwbparishcouncil.org.uk/shop> or ask Adam.

You can't have failed to notice the bumper crop of fruits, nuts and seeds on the trees this year! Called a "mast year", and recurring every few years, this is likely the result of an evolved survival strategy following a warm spring, that was good for pollination, and then the stress of a long hot summer drought. Trees prioritised reproduction. By far exceeding the appetites of foraging animals, the likelihood of seeds germinating and seedlings surviving is much increased.

It'd be nice to think all this means we could be a bit more self-sufficient in apples this year - 70% of apples sold in Britain tend to be imported – in any case it was great seeing boxes of fruit by gates and produce being offered on social media. Sorry we had to turn later donations for juicing away - the apple press had unfortunately reached capacity. There will certainly have been plenty of pomace, what is left after the apples are juiced, and the favourite treat of the cows on Hungerford Common just over the fence!

Next market: Sunday 16th November, 11am – 1pm, Broad Hinton Village Hall – tell your friends, see you there!

VIEW FROM THE RECTORY

The Sound of Silence

My favourite bit on the radio is the silence. Not just any old silence but that sacred moment of radio silence on Radio 3 when the piece of music has ended and we enjoy its imprint held in the stillness it has just been birthed into. If the BBC licence fee ever became voluntary it would be the only thing left that would stop me cancelling my direct debit.

Why is the Rector noisily banging on about silence you may ask? - if you've bothered to read this far. Well, as you read this I am currently away on a silent retreat. It is 30 days engaging in Ignatian Spiritual Exercises but it is all done within a framework of silence.

Silence is not just one thing and the writer L. Kane gives us some good examples:

The dumb silence of apathy, the sober silence of solemnity, the fertile silence of awareness ... The muzzled silence of outrage, the expectant silence of waiting ...the eloquent silence of awe, the unnerving silence of menace, the peaceful silence of communion, and the irrevocable silence of death illustrate, by their unspoken response to speech, that experiences exist for which we lack the word.

(Kane,L. The Language of Silence: On the Unspoken and Unspeakable in Modern Drama)

When silence is part of a spiritual practice the beauty of the silence doesn't come from a magnificent piece of heavenly music, as on Radio 3, but from a connection with heaven itself. Different spiritual traditions label it in different ways but the essence is the same. I remember entering the silence of the blue mosque in Istanbul just after prayers and the quality of that silence felt exactly the same as the silence during a high Catholic Mass. A space full of prayer.

In this noisy world of distractions silence is actively discouraged. This means we don't get to savour its possibilities as a doorway to deeper experience. Believe it or not silence can be exciting and life changing. So close that laptop now, flip those ear buds into the gutter and

Shhhhhh Shhhhhh

'Thoughts will lead you in circles,
Silence will bring you back to your centre.'
Rasheed Ogunlaru

Every blessing,

Jonathan – the Rector.

Morning Prayer

8.30-9am daily

Join us by zoom for half an hour to start the day in an atmosphere of quiet prayer and reflection with others, from the comfort of your own armchair. We are a small group who value this wonderful opportunity to gather ourselves for the day, to focus on what lies ahead and to enjoy silence together.

For more details, the service sheet and the zoom link, contact:

Sibella Laing:

01672 861600 or

sibella.laing@outlook.com

Can you give yourself 25 minutes a fortnight?

Just to relax, turn off, and forget the trials and stresses of life, and everyday pressures, and to enjoy a time of peace, calm and silent reflection.

Every fortnight on a Wednesday evening at East Kennett Church from 6.00 to 6.25pm we hold a Taize meditation service: a chance to just sit quietly and relax and enjoy the silence and the peace by candlelight, with a background of occasional singing - often accompanied by guitar playing, plus a few words of wisdom and brief prayers – but mainly peace and calm.

No complicated service to follow, just peace and relaxation.

Put these dates in your diary and drop in to join us when you feel like it:

NOVEMBER: Wednesday 5th

Wednesday 19th,

DECEMBER: Wednesday 3rd

We look forward to seeing you.
